Stanton Social's Reinvented Chicken and Waffles

Though the menu at Stanton Social is immense, there are always a few dominant dishes Lower East Side patrons order again and again. Recently it was the crab corn dogs, which Starchefs had chef Chris Santos prepare for the Rising Star Chef gala. Now it's a postmodern "Chicken and Waffles" created by Santos and his soon-to-depart chef de cuisine Ryan Angulo. We spoke to Angulo about the dish.

As always, mouse over the different elements to hear it described in the chef's own words.
