Ride Now is a motorcycle rally, ride and shindig benefiting autism. It's a celebration of motorcycles, chrome, and music so great it can no longer be contained in just one city. Last year, Ride Now welcomed over 2,000 people who cruised through four cities, raising much-needed funding for biomedical research in autism and awareness for a disorder that was virtually ignored for more than forty years. Each event includes a beautiful local ride and special parties hosted by sponsors and supporters. Read more.
